Lecture starts at 2.30pm: Santa Claus - The art that turns him from St Nicholas to Santa Claus

Nicholas was an important 4th Century Greek Bishop in the city of Myra in southern Anatolia. St Nicholas is said to have saved the lives of three virgins by offering gifts. As the patron saint of sailors his fame spreads to Italy, but it is the Dutch who transform him into Sinterklass and finally Santa Claus. This gift-giving saint then emerges in Britain as Father Christmas.
